

JTAS AUTHOR AGREEMENT

Revised 7/20/2020

This JTAS AUTHOR AGREEMENT is an agreement between Journal of Transnational American Studies (the “Journal” or “JTAS”) and the undersigned submitter (the “Author”), governing the work currently being submitted, including the primary contribution as well as all supporting materials, including, but not limited to, any abstract, data sets, media files, figures, or tables created by the Author and any co-authors (the “Submission”).

The Author understands and acknowledges that JTAS is an “open access” journal, which means that all content is freely available without charge to readers or their institutions. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of the articles, or use them for any other lawful purpose, without asking prior permission from the publisher or the author.

1. As consideration for publication in JTAS, the Author grants JTAS the following rights:

1.1. A non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free right to publish, reproduce, publicly display, publicly perform, and distribute the Submission, in perpetuity, throughout the world, in all means of expression, by any method or media now known or hereafter developed; and

1.2. A non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free right to license others, including, but not limited to, databases or printing vendors, to do any or all of the above on a non-exclusive basis.

2. The Author warrants that:

2.1. The Author is the author of the Submission, or is authorized to act on behalf of the author(s) and copyright holder(s) (if different from the author(s)), and has the power to convey the rights granted in this agreement.

2.2. If the Submission has multiple authors, the other authors are identified in the Submission, and the Author will inform the other authors of the terms of this agreement.

2.3. Any material included in the Submission that is the intellectual property or work of another, including, but not limited to, textual, graphic, photographic, or multimedia material, is identified and cited in the Submission.

2.4. If the Submission reproduces any material that is the intellectual property of another, the Author has received permission to publish that material in the Submission, or the material is being incorporated based on an informed, reasonable, and good faith application of fair use.

2.5. The Submission is the original work of the Author(s). To the best of the Author’s knowledge, it does not contain matter that is obscene, libelous, or defamatory; it does not knowingly violate another’s right of privacy, right of publicity, or other legal right; it does not contain false or misleading statements; and it is otherwise not unlawful.

2.6. The Submission has not previously been published and is not pending review or publication elsewhere (including in any form that is substantially similar to the Submission or from which the Submission is derived). If this is not the case, the Author has provided JTAS with written statement setting forth complete citations for all other locations where the Submission (or any work that is substantially similar to the Submission or from which the Submission is derived) has been published previously or is pending review or publication. Prior distribution or publication, may not, under all circumstances, result in the de facto exclusion of a Submission from consideration for publication in JTAS.

2.7. If the Author is a student, the Author agrees to share the Submission and waive any privacy rights granted by FERPA or any other law, policy or regulation, with respect to the Submission, for the purposes of the publication contemplated by this agreement. If the Author has any student co-authors, prior to publication, the Author will obtain a signed copy of this agreement from each of those co-authors.

2.8. The Submission complies with all relevant Journal policies and submission guidelines provided on the Journal's website at the time of submission, including any policies on conflict of interest, informed consent, human and animal rights, or appropriate content.

3. Indemnification

The Author will indemnify and hold JTAS, its editors, publishers, sponsors, supporting institutions, agents, representatives, and volunteers (collectively, the "Journal Personnel"), harmless, including reasonable attorneys fees actually incurred, against loss, damages, expenses, awards, costs, and judgments arising from breach of any of the above warranties. Journal Personnel are intended third-party beneficiaries of and may separately enforce this indemnification obligation.

4. Author's Rights and Obligations

4.1. Nothing in this agreement constitutes a transfer of the copyright by the Author. As such, the Author retains all rights not expressly granted herein, including but not limited to, if applicable, the right:

4.1.1. To reproduce and distribute the Submission, and to authorize others to reproduce and distribute the Submission, in any format;

4.1.2. To post the Submission in an institutional repository or the Author's personal or departmental web page; and

4.1.3. To include the Submission, in whole or in part, in another work.

4.2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Author distributes the Submission on another website or in another publication (as described above), the Author agrees to cite JTAS as the source of first publication, if applicable.

5. Rights for Readers

JTAS and the Author agree that the Submission will be distributed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0), or other later version of the same license, that allows others to copy and redistribute the Submission, as long as they provide appropriate credit to the author(s) and do not use the Submission for commercial purposes. Anyone who uses or redistributes the Submission under this license must indicate any changes that were made, must link to the license, and cannot imply that the author(s) endorse them or their use. Anyone who translates, adapts, or builds upon the Submission may not distribute the modified material. More information about this license is available at <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/>.

6. Termination

The Author agrees to the terms of this agreement for the Submission being considered for publication. If the Submission is declined, this agreement is terminated.

I agree to be bound by the foregoing terms and conditions of this JTAS AUTHOR AGREEMENT:
