POLICY

The Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology publishes original manuscripts on the ethnography, ethnohistory, languages, arts, archaeology, and prehistory of the native peoples of Alta and Baja California and the Great Basin. Five categories of written material are published: (1) articles, (2) reports, (3) documents, (4) comments, and (5) reviews. Provide four copies of all written material submitted for consideration. Manuscripts must be typewritten double-spaced throughout. Do not single-space anything, and do not use erasable bond paper. Keep manuscripts as brief as possible: articles (to 25 pages); reports and comments (under 10 pages); reviews (2-3 pages). Suggested page counts should include all illustrative material. Manuscripts submitted for consideration should conform strictly to the format of this issue. Authors may obtain a copy of the style guide by writing to the editor. Tables can ordinarily be set to type, but should be submitted double-spaced on one or more pages. Drawings and photographs should be of high quality. If possible, reduce drawings to conform with the single- or double-column format of the Journal, with ample room for captions. Submit captions on a separate page. References should be double-spaced and should conform to the style of this issue. End notes are permitted, but should be kept as brief as possible. All articles and reports submitted will be read by a committee of not less than four referees. Reprints cannot be made at a nominal cost by our printer, and it is no longer possible to make reprints in an economical manner through the editorial office of the Journal. Authors may, however, request and will receive permission to manufacture at their own expense up to 100 copies of each contribution published in the Journal. The Journal will provide, at no charge, tear sheets of an author's contribution for purposes of reprinting. Reprints may be given away or used as class hand-outs, but may not be sold.
