THE WESTERN HISTORY ASSOCIATION invites memberships from all persons interested in the American West. Membership is on a calendar-year basis and includes The American West (an illustrated bi-monthly magazine) and the scholarly Western Historical Quarterly. Institutions, while not eligible for regular or sustaining memberships, may become institutional sponsoring members. Individuals or institutions not wishing to become members may subscribe separately to the two magazines.

Members are eligible to serve and vote for officers of the Association and participate in the Annual Meetings. The 1983 Annual Meeting will be in Salt Lake City, Utah, October 12-15, 1983.

Pacific Historical Review

Official Publication of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association

For more than fifty years The Review has published articles devoted to the history of American expansionism to the Pacific and beyond, post-frontier developments of the twentieth-century American West, and U.S. policies in Asia; it also publishes articles on historians' methodologies and philosophies. Published quarterly, each issue contains an extensive book review section along with items of professional news. Frequent special issues have covered a broad range of timely subjects—

The New Deal (August 1969)

The Petroleum Industry (May 1970)

The City (August 1970)

The American Indian (August 1971)

Environmental History (August 1972)

The Chicano (August 1973)

The Asian American (November 1974)

Western Literary History (August 1976)

Reclamation History (November 1978)

The American Empire (November 1979)

Women in the American West (May 1980)

Western State Historiography: A Status Report (November 1981)

Forthcoming:

The Arts in the West
