The background of the page is a high-contrast, abstract graphic. It features large, flowing, organic shapes in black and white. In the upper left quadrant, there is a dark, textured area that resembles a starry night sky or a galaxy, with numerous small white specks scattered across a dark background. The overall composition is dynamic and visually striking.

CONTRIBUTORS . . .

ROBERT L. CARTER is a senior partner in the New York law firm of Poletti, Freidin, Pashker, Feldman & Gartner. He received a B.A. from Lincoln University, a LL.B. from Howard University, and a LL.M. from Columbia University. From 1945 to 1968 he worked with the NAACP Legal Education and Defense Fund, first as an Assistant Counsel, and then in the head position of General Counsel. During this period he was one of the key attorneys who argued for the appellants and some of the other interested parties in the monumental Brown v. Board of Education, the mass litigation to desegregate Southern schools.

KENNETH L. KARST AND HAROLD W. HOROWITZ are both Professors of Law at the University of California, Los Angeles. Prior to joining the U.C.L.A. faculty in 1964, Professor Horowitz taught law at the University of Southern California, Harvard University and Stanford University, and served as Associate General Counsel for HEW. He received a B.A. from U.C.L.A. in 1943, a LL.B. from Harvard in 1949, a LL.M. from U.S.C. in 1954, and a S.J.D. from Harvard in 1967. Professor Karst taught law at Harvard University, Ohio State University, and the University of Michigan prior to joining Professor Horowitz on the U.C.L.A. faculty in 1965. He received a B.A. from U.C.L.A. in 1950, and a LL.B. from Harvard in 1953. The publications of Professors Karst and Horowitz include a book which they co-authored, Law, Lawyers, and Social Change: Cases and Materials on the Abolition of Slavery, Bobbs-Merrill, 1969.

RONALD BROWN is currently doing graduate work at Harvard Business School. He received a B.A. in History from Rutgers University (1967) and a J.D. from Harvard Law School (1971). Prior publications include: "White Debt and Black Control of Missionaries and Panthers," included in a recent book, With Justice for Some; an article in the Rutgers Review: "Marquis de Sade and Sigmund Freud;" and a case comment in Harvard Civil Rights-Civil Liberties Law Review: "Norwalk C.O.R.E. v. Norwalk Board of Education." Mr. Brown acknowledges the assistance of Ms. Geraldine Reed, Editor of Harvard Civil Rights-Civil Liberties Law Review, in preparing this article.

DONALD W. HOWIE is an Associate Professor of Political Science and Black Studies at the State University of New York at Stony Brook. He received a B.A. in Political Science from Drew University in 1965, an M.A. in History of Ideas from Brandeis University in 1971, and a J.D. from Yale Law School in 1969. He is also presently a Graduate Fellow in Political Science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
