In the sentence beginning ‘However, it should be noted that updates to...’ under heading Methods, section 2.1, the text ‘these two databases were discontinued in 2015 and 2018, respectively’ should have read ‘National Health Service Economic Evaluation database were discontinued in 2015’.

The complete sentence should read:

However, it should be noted that updates to National Health Service Economic Evaluation database were discontinued in 2015.

The original article has been corrected.
