Why to archive: Web e-phemera?

- "To articulate the past historically does not mean to recognize it 'the way it really was' (Ranke). It means to seize hold of a memory as it flashes up at a moment of danger."

Dear Ms. Krasulina,

I hope that this email finds you well. At UC Berkeley, in collaboration with the British Library and the Bavarian State Library, I am curating a web archive of Belarus events in light of contested Presidential elections in Belarus. I wondered if we can have permission from you and the president-elect Ms. Sviatlana Tsikhanouskaya to archive her website for non-commercial, academic research purposes?

We hope to get your permission to make her website a part of our web-archive and preserve it for the coming decades. If you do not wish to grant the consent, please let us know. We will make it a part of a dark archive that will not be available to the public as it is archived for preservation purposes.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,
Liladhar
