Industrial Organization, Economic Analysis & Policy Seminar

University of California Berkeley, February 24 to May 5, 2009

The IO-EAP seminar hosts worldwide scholars presenting working papers that deal with contemporary issues related to industrial organization, economic theory and policy formulation. For the Spring 2009, the industrial organization seminar for the Economics department will be held jointly with the business, economics and public policy program of the Haas business school. The seminar is open to graduate students, faculty and visitors from Economics, Haas, ARE, Boalt and other departments in the university who have an interest in the subject matters being covered by the seminar.
