Chicana/o Latina/o Law Review

Vol. 32, No. 1 • 2013

Over the last 30 years, the Chicana/o-Latina/o Law Review (“CLLR”) has provided an essential forum for the discussion of issues affecting the Latino community that “mainstream” law journals continue to ignore. In publishing Volume One, the Review introduced to the nation the first legal journal that recognized how common law, statutes, legislative policy, and politically popular propositions impact the Latino community. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, Nevada Supreme Court and New Jersey Superior Court have cited the Review as persuasive.

CLLR welcomes submissions of articles and comments by students, scholars, and practitioners. To submit a manuscript, use the Submit Paper button on CLLR's eScholarship site at http://escholarship.org/uc/uclalaw_cllr, or email an attachment to: cllr@lawnet.ucla.edu. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The permanent staff at CLLR would like to recognize and give credit to the following individuals for their devoted efforts to ensure publication of this volume. Traditionally, CLLR has operated on a small staff and this issue was no exception. At the time of review of this article, CLLR had not welcomed its 2013-2014 permanent staff, and as a result, nearly missed an opportunity to showcase the piece presented in this volume. Fortunately a collective of students volunteered to review, edit, and revise Professor Lopez's piece. As such, we are proud to have extended the CLLR family and give thanks to this volume's Special Volume Editors!
