In keeping with the tradition established by Mester of dedicating one of our two yearly issues to special topics, volume 18.2 is devoted to Colonial Ibero-America. The impetus for this issue was provided by the courses given by Professor José Pascual-Buxó in the winter and spring of 1988. The first five contributions represent the product of these courses.

The editors of Mester greatly appreciate the enthusiastic cooperation received for this special issue. In particular, we would like to thank Dr. José Pascual-Buxó, whose article entitled "Sor Juana egipciana (Aspectos neoplatónicos de El sueño)" provides the introduction to this edition.
