

UC Merced

The Journal of California Anthropology

Title

The Jaime de Angulo Library (advertisement)

Permalink

<https://escholarship.org/uc/item/50t8w7h8>

Journal

The Journal of California Anthropology, 1(1)

Publication Date

1974-07-01

Peer reviewed

The Jaime de Angulo Library

The first publication of the selected writings of Jaime de Angulo, a legendary northern California anthropologist, author of the classic Indian Tales.

INDIANS IN OVERALLS — a brilliant, intimate introduction to north-eastern California Indian life. ($6.00)

COYOTE MAN & OLD DOCTOR LOON — in the manner of Indian Tales, a gathering of Pit River myths and legends. Winner of Bookbuilder's West Award of Excellence for 1973. Illustrated by the author. ($6.00)

DON BARTOLOMEO — a first novel, on Indian life in & around the early missions of central California. "In it's charm, freshness, and strange unique quality the most extraordinary story we have ever read." The Independent ($6.00)

COYOTE'S BONES — the selected poetry and prose of Jaime de Angulo, includes Shaman Songs, Laughing Horse sketches. Illustrated by the author. ($7.00)

THE LARIAT — a later novel, on the confrontation between Frey Luis & an ancient Esselen wer-bear shaman. Illustrated by the author. ($7.00)

The Jaime de Angulo Library is available only by mail. Send your check or money order to Turtle Island, 2907 Bush Street, San Francisco, CA 94115. Please add 25¢ per book for postage & handling. California residents add appropriate sales tax.

PUBLICATIONS FROM MALKI MUSEUM PRESS

TEMALPAKH: CAHUILLA INDIAN KNOWLEDGE AND USAGE OF PLANTS

Lowell John Bean and Katherine Siva Saubel. One of the most detailed ethnobotanies ever published, encompassing Cahuilla knowledge and usage of more than 250 plants.

Paperback $6.50 retail, hardcover $10.00

ABORIGINAL SOCIETY IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

William Duncan Strong. A reprint of the classic ethnography of Shoshonean-speaking peoples of southern California with a review of the current status of Shoshonean studies by Lowell John Bean.

Paperback $6.50 retail, hardcover $10.00

MULU'WETAM: THE FIRST PEOPLE

Jane H. Hill and Rosinda Nolasquez. A diverse collection of Cupeño myths, oral history, songs, autobiographies, etc. A dictionary and grammatical sketch of Cupeño is presented for linguists and more sophisticated readers.

Paperback $6.50 retail

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE LUISENO LANGUAGE

Villiana Hyde. The first American Indian language textbook, this grammar of a southern California Shoshonean language is written clearly for the general reader and scholar.

Paperback $4.50 retail

THE CAHUILLA INDIANS

Harry C. James. An immensely readable account of the culture and history of these desert and mountain peoples and how they mastered a fierce environment.

Paperback $4.50 retail, hardcover $7.50

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF DELFINA CUERO

Florence Shipek. A moving and tragic story of a Diegueño woman and the displacement of her people as white settlers took over their lands.

Paperback $3.50 retail

Make checks payable to: Malki Museum, 11-795 Fields Road, Banning, California 92220

Please add 5% for California state tax and 50 cents per book for handling.

BOOKS
ON CALIFORNIA
ANTHROPOLOGY

Write for our free catalogue.

BALLENA PRESS
P. O. Box 711
Ramona, California 92065