AMANTES DE LLUVIA

ALYSSA NICOLE GRIEGO

Oh, it's a wonderful thing to love
Love a girl, a lovely girl.
Or a boy, who loves a boy,
Or a star who loves a star.
Oh, that lovely rain
That pours from our veins,
But her parents never really
Felt the same.
And though you are the moon,
I am the sun
And no matter how far,
I always run.
You are the softness of my lips,
You are the butterflies from a first kiss,
You are the anger in my fists,
You are the one I will always miss.
Because what's a sky without clouds?
And as the rain touches down,
Echoes of clarity seem to sound.
