ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This year the Journal received more submissions of articles and book reviews than ever before. As Editor-in-Chief, I would like to thank all of those who submitted articles for their interest and the fine quality of their work. I regret that more of them could not be published. Despite continued support by the UCLA Graduate Students Association, the Social Sciences Council, the History Graduate Students Association and the History Department, our funds do not match our needs. For this reason we are regretfully raising our subscription rates to bring our funds more in line with our expenses.

The Editorial Board is pleased to be able to offer the Theodore Saloutos Award for outstanding graduate work for a second year. We would like to thank all those who contributed to the award fund, and invite others to help guarantee the perpetuity of this award.

As departing Editor-in-Chief, I would like to personally thank all those on the editorial board for their support and conscientious work. I am also grateful to the Department of History's typing staff, without which this publication would not be possible. Many others have added their advice, support, and talents to this publication. And for all of them I am thankful. Above all I would like to thank my professors for their unending patience with a "busy" editor, especially my advisor Professor Michael Morony.

Finally, congratulations to next year's Editor-in-Chief, Michael Gelb, and the new staff.

Patricia K. Wright
Editor-in-Chief
