HEART OF SOUTH AFRICA

by

Rand Bishop

In the bowels of South Africa a mile from the sun, black hands claw the rock feeling for your nugget-heart pulsing in the black nation.

Sent to the surface on the vertical column of a thousand backs, extracted, you leave behind a human black hole, are molded, bought and sold to trap the evening light at a lady's alabaster throat, choker of gold and ruin.
