ARE YOU STILL READING SOMEONE ELSE'S COPY OF ISIS?

IF SO, now is the time to enter your own subscription. ISIS, the official journal of the History of Science Society, is the leading journal in the field.

ISIS keeps over 4,000 subscribers in nearly fifty countries up to date on all developments in the history of science with articles, critiques, and documents and translations. Its notes and correspondence and news of the profession provide useful information to professionals, educators, scholars, and graduate students.

Lively essay reviews and over 200 book reviews a year cover every specialty in the history of science, technology, and medicine.

In addition to your four quarterly issues of ISIS you will also receive:

- Membership in the History of Science Society.
- The annual Critical Bibliography, listing over 3,000 publications in the history of science, technology and medicine from the preceding year.
- The triennial Guide to the History of Science, containing a directory of members and information on scholarly programs, societies, and over ninety journals in the field. The 1983 edition is now available.
- The quarterly Newsletter, providing current news of the profession, including employment opportunities and approaching meetings.

"The most widely cited source in the leading field of historical research in the United States."

Coming in volumes 20 and 21 of the

JOURNAL OF SOCIAL HISTORY

1986-1987

The Journal continues to define new areas of historical coverage and to clarify major interpretive issues in the field with groupings of articles on such subjects as:

Mental health problems and their treatment: getting beneath social control

New studies in working-class history: relating events and social processes; aging and the labor force

Disease as a historical artifact — new research findings

New initiatives in non-western social history: issues of class and labor in Latin America, India and elsewhere

Prisons and legal systems in social history

Plus many other articles and reviews, as the JSH maintains its role as a basic outlet in the field

Also: The JSH discount book service to individual subscribers — 25 percent off on titles from 15 American and British publishers

Annual subscription rates: $37 institutions, $19 individuals, $14 students
