

UCLA

Mester

Title

[Contributors]

Permalink

<https://escholarship.org/uc/item/6qw2z09g>

Journal

Mester, 19(1)

Author

Mester, [No author]

Publication Date

1990

DOI

10.5070/M3191014099

Copyright Information

Copyright 1990 by the author(s). All rights reserved unless otherwise indicated. Contact the author(s) for any necessary permissions. Learn more at <https://escholarship.org/terms>

Contributors

VICENTE CARMONA is a graduate student at USC, specializing in Peninsular Literature. His publications include the 1986 edition of Catálogo de dibujos by Federico García Lorca, "Concepto de realidad en el primer teatro de Arrabal" and "Personaje dramático y estética del desequilibrio" (in press). He is currently preparing for publication an article entitled "Espacio expresivo en la teoría poética del 50".

JACQUELINE CRUZ is a graduate student at UCLA specializing in Twentieth Century Spanish and Spanish American Literature. She received her B.S., M.S. and M.A. from UCLA. Her publications include "Elementos emblemáticos en la Comedia de San Francisco de Borja, de Matías de Bocanegra" (Mester 18.2) and an article on women in the poetry of José Martí (in press). She is currently researching the subject of mirrors in Rayuela.

SARA INCLAN received her Licenciatura in Hispanic Philology from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid. Her M.A. is from UCLA, where she specialized in Spanish Linguistics-Syntax. Her most recent work is entitled "ECP, Superiority and the Strict Cycle Conditions in Spanish" Romance Linguistics & Literature Review, Vol. II (Fall 1990). She is currently researching tense and aspect in Spanish.

ANTONIO JIMENEZ is a graduate student at UCLA specializing in Contemporary Latin American Literature. He received his M.A. from UCLA and his B.A. from the University of California at Irvine. Currently he is preparing to take his qualifying exams for the doctoral degree.

GLORIA OROZCO-ALLAN is a graduate student specializing in Contemporary Latin American Literature at UCLA, from where she also received her B.A. in Psychology. She is currently preparing for publication articles on Buenaventura's "The orgy" and Cervantes's entremés, "La cueva de Salamanca", as well as doing research on Colombian theater.

AZUCENA PALACIOS received her Doctorado from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, where she presently teaches. Her most recent publication is: "Ensayo de una nueva clasificación de afijos a la luz de una lengua como el guaraní" Actas L.N. y L.F. She is currently working on two projects: "Gramática de la oración simple guaraní" and "Las causativas morfológicas en las lenguas del mundo."

KEVIN PENDREY received his B.A. from Rutgers University and graduated with an M.A. in Diachronic Hispanic Phonology from UCLA. His most recent publication is "Linguistic Conflict in Spain: Sociolinguistic and Politicohistoric Milieux", and his current projects include writing an elementary Spanish textbook.

JUAN VELASCO is a doctoral student specializing in Latin American Literature at UCLA. He received his Doctorado from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid. His publications include the 1988 edition of "Cartones de Madrid" by Alfonso Reyes and an article entitled "El poeta contra la zarrapastrosa retórica: Modernismo y Vanguardia en la obra de José Juan Tablada", which appeared in Margen.

SALVADOR VELAZCO is a graduate student at UCLA specializing in Contemporary Spanish American Literature. He received his Licenciatura from the Universidad de Guadalajara, Mexico. His most recent publications include "Una loa a su majestad" (Mester 18.2) and several articles published in Etcaetera. He is currently working on an article on "El reino de este mundo" by Alejo Carpentier.