Western State Historiography: A Status Report is part of a continuing series of special issues of PACIFIC HISTORICAL REVIEW devoted to The American West. Issues in this series include Western Literary History (August 1976), Reclamation History (November 1978), Women in the American West (May 1980), and the forthcoming The Arts in the West.

PACIFIC HISTORICAL REVIEW is a quarterly journal devoted to the history of American expansionism to the Pacific and beyond; the postfrontier developments of the 20th-century American West, and to analyses and discussions of the methodologies and philosophies of historians.

Single copies of Western State Historiography are $6.50 each. Past special issues are available for $7.50 each. A subscription to PACIFIC HISTORICAL REVIEW is $12.00 for individuals, $24.00 for institutions, and $10.00 for students (with certificate of status signed by a faculty member). Outside the U.S. please add $2.00 postage. Send orders to PACIFIC HISTORICAL REVIEW, University of California Press, Berkeley, CA 94720.
