Atkinson Presidency Timeline

DATE	EVENT
Aug. 1995	Richard C. Atkinson appointed seventeenth president of the University of California, effective October 1, 1995.
Oct. 1995	National Research Council releases "Research-Doctorate Programs in the United States," a comprehensive study of the quality of Ph.D. programs in American universities. UC as a system did remarkably well, with more than half of its 229 graduate programs ranked in the top twenty in the nation. When averages were computed for individual universities, Berkeley ranked first in the nation, San Diego tenth, and Los Angeles twelfth; the other nine institutions in the top twelve were all private universities.
Oct. 1995	Three UC faculty awarded the Nobel Prize: Frederick Reines (Physics, Irvine), F. Sherwood Rowland (Chemistry, Irvine), Paul Crutzen (Chemistry, San Diego).
Oct. 1995	Inauguration of Henry Yang as fifth chancellor of UC Santa Barbara.
Dec. 1995	William H. Gurtner appointed vice president, Clinical Services Development.
Jan. 1996	Industry-University Cooperative Research Program established.
Mar. 1996	C. Judson King appointed provost and senior vice president, Academic Affairs.
Mar. 1996	Regents authorize construction of headquarters in Oakland for the Office of the President.
Apr. 1996	M.R.C. Greenwood appointed sixth chancellor of UC Santa Cruz.
Apr. 1996	Robert C. Dynes appointed sixth chancellor of UC San Diego.
June 1996	UC and the Los Alamos National Laboratory establish an office in Northern New Mexico to strengthen relationships with regional communities.
Aug. 1996	President Atkinson announces a new methodology for allocating state funds to the campuses. Among the changes are: most allocations to the campuses to be made as a single block of funds; indirect cost reimbursements to be returned to the campuses on the basis of how the dollars are generated; campuses to assume greater flexibility and responsibility for how funds are spent.

- Aug. 1996 Commission on the Future of Medical Education appointed (Charles Wilson, M.D., chair).
- Sept. 1996 Robert N. Shelton appointed vice provost for research.
- Oct. 1996 Bruce B. Darling appointed vice president, University and External Relations.
