Sociedad de Estudios Quiroguianos (Horacio Quiroga Society)

The Sociedad de Estudios Quiroguianos (Horacio Quiroga Society) was recently established to bring together those researchers who write, or have an interest in writing on the work of Horacio Quiroga. The aim of the Society is to assist in the sharing of information among its members, as well as to provide a means for discussion of Quiroga's work.

Among various plans, the Sociedad de Estudios Quiroguianos intends to:

- *Up-date and inform members of bibliographical information as well as current research being carried out, through periodic announcements.
- *Establish a Quiroga Library and Archive.
- *Organize exhibitions, book reviews and conferences on Quiroga's work.

The first meeting of the Sociedad de Estudios Quiroguianos, which was held at the Instituto de Literatura Hispanoamericana of the University of Buenos Aires in April, 1995, was called to appoint a Coordinating Committee, whose function is to communicate members' suggestions and arrange further meetings of the Society. The founding members of the Coordinating Committee are the following:

Argentina: Noé Nitrik, Director of the Instituto Hispanoamericana; Jorge Lafforgue; Jorge B. Rivera
Uruguay: Leonardo Garet; Pablo Rocca; Omar Prego
USA: Michael Wong-Russell

Quiroga scholars in the United States who are interested in joining the Sociedad de Estudios Quiroguianos are asked to write to Prof. Michael Wong-Russell, 55 Garrison Road, Brookline, MA 02146 (FAX: 617-277-2053; wongruss@acs.bu.edu).
