CONTRIBUTIONS

UFAHAMU accepts contributions from anyone interested in Africa and related subject areas. Contributions may include scholarly articles, political-economic analyses, commentaries, review articles, film and book reviews, poetry, prose fiction, and artwork. Manuscripts must be no more than 30 pages, clearly typed, double spaced, with a brief abstract and a brief biographical note, including position, academic or organizational affiliation and recent significant publications, etc. We request that, when possible, articles be submitted on one 3.5 inch diskette or as an e-mail attachment to the Editors-in-Chief.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit any manuscript to meet the objectives of the journal. All correspondence—manuscripts, subscriptions, books for review, inquiries, etc.—should be addressed to the Editors-in-Chief at the above address. We regret that once submitted, materials cannot be returned.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences.

Partial funding for the publication of UFAHAMU is provided by the Graduate Students Association of UCLA and the James S. Coleman African Studies Center.
