COMMENT

Publications of Ronald L. Olson

Omer C. Stewart has kindly pointed out to us that an incomplete list of the publications of Ronald L. Olson appeared in his memorial in the preceding issue of the Journal. Unfortunately, the error occurred during composition, after a correct galley had been proofed. A complete list of the publications of Ronald L. Olson is provided here. — Editor.

Corrections to “Some Aspects of Kitanemuk Prehistory”

MARK Q. SUTTON

My article, “Some Aspects of Kitanemuk Prehistory,” published in the last issue of the Journal contains two errors. The legend in Fig. 1 is reversed, listing Kroeber’s boundary assignment as Blackburn and Bean’s, and vice versa. Rosamond Lake is also misspelled on Fig. 1. These errors were made by the author during production of the map.
