ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are pleased to present volume 9 of the UCLA Historical Journal. The Journal has persisted through the efforts of the staff, in particular, Kevin Terraciano. No more dedicated friend to this journal can be found than Kevin. He wrote a guide fo recruiting staff and their responsibilities; he enlisted several people to staff the various offices; and, he actively canvassed articles and book reviews from interested researchers. We owe him a great deal of gratitude for his efforts.

The cover has been redesigned to give it a more appealing appearance. With this sleeker look and the continuing work of the present staff—Matthew Restall and Robinson Herrera, with Kevin Terraciano as Editor—the prospects for the next issue are promising.

Congratulations to Carole Collier Frick for winning the $500.⁰⁰ "Theodore Saloutos Award" for her article presented in this issue. We deeply appreciate the steadfast support of Mrs. Florence Saloutos for continuing to make this honor possible. We would also like to thank the UCLA Graduate Students Association for its generous contribution to this publication.

In this edition, we have expanded the "Notes and Documents" section, which features the analysis of documents that have never been translated into English. There is also the usual selection of "Book Reviews," compiled by Matthew Restall.
